JAKARTA, JP: The water surface elevation at the Manggarai floodgate on Ciliwung River was 825 centimeters on Monday, indicating the possibility of flooding. “The water level has been rising above the safe level of 700 centimeters since Sunday,” said floodgate attendant Mashudi as quoted by Detik.com. At the Depok floodgate, the water level climbed to 140 cm Monday, a decrease from Sunday’s night level of 170 cm. “We hope the water level in Depok returns to normal soon,” Mashudi said. Since the water surface elevation at the Depok gate rose above the normal 100 cm last week, a number of areas in East Jakarta have flooded, including Kampung Melayu, Kampung Pulo, Jatinegara, Bukit Duri and Cawang.- JP

Text #4

Last weekend, my friends and I went camping. We reached the camping ground after we walked for about one and a half hour from the parking lot. We built the camp next to a small river. It was getting darker and colder, so we built a fire camp. The next day, we spent our time observing plantation and insects while the girls were preparing meals. In the afternoon we went to the river and caught some fish for supper. At night, we held a fire camp night. We sang, danced, read poetry, played magic tricks, and even some of us performed a standing comedy. On Monday, we packed our bags and got ready to go home.
